

FOOD NEWS FOR YOU TO PERUSE

We've got six of the best new openings and deals from around town for you to enjoy this excellent, cuisine-tastic January

Laugh out loud

Kim's really provide mouth-watering Singaporean food, great drinks and an always enjoyable time down at Al Seef, but now they've got laughs too! From tonight, check out the line-up of local talent showcasing their best comedy routines every Wednesday at 9.30pm onwards. Ansoo, Imrah, Amy Saif, Moeju, Monica Loughe, and Saadep are on tonight so head on down, grab a drink, and hold on tight or you'll be falling off your seat.

Latest fine dining

Art by taste is the second Dubai-based concept from restaurateur Natasia Sideris and will open this month. This latest addition to DIFC's dining scene has been inspired by Natasia's Greek heritage and passion for combining tastes, beautiful service, menu and service. We're going for the mezze and slow-cooked meat, prepared using the traditional souvla grill.

Nostalgia on a plate

Bleeding ingenuity with the culinary traditions of old, it's rich past, Purni Old opening tonight at the Four Points by Sheraton, Downtown, is where Old Delhi's most revered recipes come to life. With a keen focus on reviving authentic flavours, the restaurant interior also captures the charm of bustling bylanes, live entertainment including singing as well as the chadhai (dangle wailer) in the lobby and the cycle rickshaw, processing into worthy moments.

Go with the Flow

With 80 per cent of New Year's resolutions doomed to fail, Flow at Jumeirah Emirates Towers is promising you a helping hand by placing wellness firmly on its January menu. Four bespoke Power Packs await for those who want to eat more healthily. Every Dhs20 Power Pack includes a smoothie, a salad, crudités, a piece of fruit and a small bottle of water.
